

'Incident 2023' fest at NITK Surathkal from today

MANGALURU: National Institute of Technology Karnataka, Surathkal, will organise the annual four-day cultural fest 'Incident 2023' on its campus from March 16 to 19.

Addressing reporters in Mangaluru, Prof Narendranath S, Dean of Student Welfare, said that the theme will be 'A Tale of Bards & Knights', aiming to transform the NITK Campus into a medieval marvel during the fest. The fest is the second largest solely student-organised fest in all of South India.

Numerous events and competitions across various art forms will be held and students from every corner of the nation will take part. Popular artistes worldwide will perform.

The inaugural function will be held on March 16. Theatre person Prakash Belawadi will inaugurate. Karnataka State Pollution Control Board chairman Shanth A Thimmaiah and Environmentalist and Padma Shri awardee Tulsi Gowda will be the guests of honour. The inaugural function will be followed by a standup comedy show by Gurleen Pannu.
